

Special Occasion Short Speech (2-3min)

You will choose a specific special occasion (Toast, Eulogy, Graduation Speech...) from the reading (Ch. 17) and create a 2-3-minute speech appropriate for the occasion. Try to choose an occasion where you might realistically be asked to speak. Please use the same outline template as before. Below is a sample outline for a eulogy.

I. Introduction: What can I say about Cliff Hill that will appropriately sum up his 60 years of fun on this earth.

- a. He loved good food.
- b. He loved good wine.
- c. He LOVED life.

II. Body: As you all know there was so much more to Clifton than just his lust for the human experience.

- a. Cliff was a wonderful friend
- b. He cared about others.
- c. One thing I will never forget about Cliff is that he lived his way.
- d. He had NO filter.

III. Conclusion: Cliff had no regrets, and would have really enjoyed this gathering, but would be wondering why we were wasting so much time talking about his life rather than living our own.
